

HUD Invests in Alaska

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Alaska to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Alaska.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $22 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 8,626 Alaska households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 16,967 individuals who reside in those households.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Alaska, HUD helps to shelter 1,639 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 203 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 308 homeless veterans since 2008.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 519 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Alaska.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 18,001 Alaska homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 65.1 percent.

Investing in Tribal Communities

Since 2010, HUD has invested more than $1 billion to promote homeownership and community development, stimulate economic development and produce affordable housing among Native American tribal communities in Alaska through such programs as the Indian Community Development Block Grant, Indian Housing Block Grant and the Section 184 loan guarantee program.
